

Program Open Day CPB Netherlands Bureau for Economic Policy Analysis, 15 January 2019

12.30 - 13.00 Reception with coffee, tea and cake

Opening: a film about Laura van Geest, director CPB

13:00 - 13:15 Welcome by Debby Lanser, head of the sector Labour Market, Education and Pensions.

13:15 - 14:00 Introduction: Ins and outs of CPB. Presentation by Debby Lanser. Everyone is invited to actively join the discussion on current issues.

14:00 - 14:30 Tour around the building, guided by Young CPB economists: Iris van Tilburg, Bas Scheer, Minke Remmerswaal, Benedikt Vogt, and Wiljan van den Berge.

The case

14:30 - 17:00 CPB challenge: a case study.

During this case you will start working on your own to experience the challenges for CPB economists.

14:30 - 15:00 Explanation of the case by Sander van Veldhuizen, programme leader Public Finance.

15:00 - 16:00 Split-up in groups of up to five people. Each group will be guided by one of the above-mentioned young CPB economists.

16:00 - 17:00 Elevator pitch to Debby Lanser and Suzanne van Gils, head of communication.

Drinks

17:00 - 18.30 Drinks with all members of Young CPB.

During the program you will meet CPB employees with different backgrounds and experience. There is ample opportunity to ask them all your questions.

It's going to be an inspiring day!